

THE MOTION

This House Believes that

Bengaluru needs to burst its tech bubble

MARK WHERE YOU STAND, NOW AND ON THE WAY OUT

KEEP IT GROWING

GIVE THE CITY ROOM

WHAT THE WORDS MEAN

TECH BUBBLE

The concentration of technology companies, jobs and investment in Bengaluru, and the cycle by which each attracts more workers and more growth.

BURST

Deliberately slow future growth by directing new offices and jobs elsewhere, and encouraging companies to distribute operations beyond Bengaluru. Existing companies would not be forced to close, and current residents would not be asked to leave.

THE REAL DISAGREEMENT

BOTH SIDES AGREE

Bengaluru's technology economy has created jobs, wealth and opportunity, while its infrastructure has failed to keep pace. Slowing it would mean fewer job opportunities, lower salaries and less investment, at least in the short term.

THEY SPLIT ON

Should Bengaluru accept fewer jobs and lower salaries to slow its tech bubble and reduce traffic, rents and pressure on infrastructure, or do the benefits of continued concentration justify keeping it growing?

WHERE EACH SIDE STARTS

FOR THE MOTION

Even if repairs begin now, continued growth will add demand faster than the city can recover. Bengaluru should accept fewer jobs and lower salaries to reduce traffic and rents, and buy breathing room.

AGAINST

Continued concentration creates opportunity, investment and resources. Slowing it means fewer jobs and lower salaries without guaranteeing that traffic, rents or infrastructure improve.

TAKING THE FLOOR

1 Write it down before you raise your hand. If it does not fit in one sentence, it is not ready.

2 One question at a time, put to the room and not to one person. If you have several, pick the best.

3 Sharp and specific. The best questions are not opinions in disguise. They are ones the other side has to answer.

4 No anecdotes. We are stress-testing arguments, not swapping experiences. If it opens with "I once knew someone who", hold it.

5 A warning at sixty seconds, a hard cutoff at ninety. The buzzer is not a suggestion.

WRITE IT DOWN FIRST

Draft while you listen. One sentence each, and if it does not fit on the line it is not ready.

THE ONE YOU WILL ASK

Pick the best of them. One question, put to the room.
