

THE MOTION

This Club Believes that

Migrants to Bengaluru have the right to reshape the city's culture, rather than merely adapt to it

MARK WHERE YOU STAND, NOW AND ON THE WAY OUT ADAPT TO IT ☐ ☐ ☐ ☒ ☐ ☐ ☐ RESHAPE IT

WHAT THE WORDS MEAN

MIGRANTS

Anyone who moved here and lives here now, from another state or another country, last year or thirty years ago. Not a legal category, and not about any one region.

THE CITY'S CULTURE

The lived, shared things: the language on the street and in shops, food, festivals, how neighbours behave, and what the city expects of people in it. Not official policy.

THE RIGHT TO RESHAPE

To change what the culture is: what you bring to it, what you decline to take up, and what you expect of the people already here. The motion covers all three. Who has the right, not what will happen.

THE REAL DISAGREEMENT

BOTH SIDES AGREE

Someone who moves here can go years without the language or the local norms and get by, because the people here are tolerant and willing to adapt. No one is arguing that the local language and customs should go.

THEY SPLIT ON

How far should the city move towards the languages and festivals migrants bring, and how far should migrants move towards what is already here?

WHERE EACH SIDE STARTS

FOR THE MOTION

A city's culture is a living thing, made by the people living in it, not a fixed inheritance. Someone who moves in can influence it and respect what is already here at the same time.

AGAINST

Tolerance has a limit, and it is not giving up your own language. People here are within their rights to insist on their language and norms, on signboards and in what the city celebrates.

YOUR CASE

Four or five points, one line each, in your own words. On stage you take them one at a time and elaborate, so write the trigger and not the speech.

HOW TO DO THIS

BEFORE YOU SPEAK

Write your four strongest points on the front, one line each. Not a speech, just what will remind you of one.

ON STAGE

Take them one at a time and elaborate. A couple of minutes, so roughly thirty seconds a point.

IN THE REBUTTAL

Write down the claim the other side actually made, then answer that one, not the one you wish they had made.

THE ORDER

ROUND ONE

1 Speech, for

2 Speech, against

3 Rebuttals

4 Open floor

ROUND TWO

5 Speech, for

6 Speech, against

7 Rebuttals

8 Open floor

The room votes before the first speech and again after the last. Anyone may take an open floor, drawn or not.

WHILE THEY SPEAK

One row, one exchange. Their claim on the left, your answer on the right.

THE ONE SENTENCE

The last thing you say is the thing the room votes on. Write it before you stand up.
