

THE MOTION

This Club Believes that

Bengaluru needs to burst its tech bubble

MARK WHERE YOU STAND, NOW AND ON THE WAY OUT

BUILD UP TO IT

LET THE AIR OUT

WHAT THE WORDS MEAN

TECH BUBBLE

What forms when investment floods tech companies and startups and pushes salaries far past what the city used to pay. Those salaries reset the rest: rents climb, travel and daily costs follow, and buying property moves out of reach.

BURST

To deliberately shrink it rather than wait for it to deflate on its own. Take it as given that the government has the means: tonight is not about whether it can be done, or how, but whether it should be.

NEEDS TO

The motion asserts necessity. Nothing here grants it. What the room is judging is whether bursting would leave the city and the people in it better off, or worse.

THE REAL DISAGREEMENT

BOTH SIDES AGREE

Both sides accept that the economy has grown faster than the city can keep up with. Traffic that does not move, water that runs out, and a cost of living climbing faster than most pay. Nobody argues this is fine.

THEY SPLIT ON

Whether the answer is to slow that growth and push it to other cities, buying time to fix water, roads and housing, at the cost of the wages and opportunities people here live on.

WHERE EACH SIDE STARTS

FOR THE MOTION

Slow the growth and send it elsewhere, and the city buys time to fix water, roads and housing. Wages and opportunities fall, but the people who stay get somewhere liveable.

AGAINST

The people already here pay for it, in what they earn and in what they can build. Firms lose the clients that kept them, drivers lose their riders, founders lose their funding, and salaries fall with all of it.

YOUR CASE

Four or five points, one line each, in your own words. On stage you take them one at a time and elaborate, so write the trigger and not the speech.

HOW TO DO THIS

BEFORE YOU SPEAK

Write your four or five strongest points on the front, one line each. Not a speech, just what will remind you of one.

ON STAGE

Take them one at a time and elaborate. A couple of minutes, so roughly thirty seconds a point.

IN THE REBUTTAL

Write down the claim the other side actually made, then answer that one, not the one you wish they had made.

THE ORDER

ROUND ONE

1 Speech, for

2 Speech, against

3 Rebuttals

4 Open floor

ROUND TWO

5 Speech, for

6 Speech, against

7 Rebuttals

8 Open floor

The room votes before the first speech and again after the last. Anyone may take an open floor, drawn or not.

WHILE THEY SPEAK

One row, one exchange. Their claim on the left, your answer on the right.

THE ONE SENTENCE

The last thing you say is the thing the room votes on. Write it before you stand up.
