

THE MOTION

The motion goes here, worded exactly as it will be read out on the night

Mark where you stand before a word is spoken.
Mark it again on the way out.

DISAGREE ○ ○ ○ ○ ○ ○ ○ AGREE

WHAT THE WORDS MEAN

FIRST TERM

A neutral one line definition, phrased so that both sides would accept it as fair before the debate begins.

SECOND TERM

The second word the room will otherwise argue past each other about, defined in the same plain way.

THIRD TERM

Drop this row if the motion only turns on two words. Three is the ceiling.

THE REAL DISAGREEMENT

BOTH SIDES AGREE

State the ground nobody is contesting, so the room does not spend twenty minutes proving a point both sides already grant.

THEY SPLIT ON

State the one question the evening actually turns on, as a question, in a single sentence.

HOW THE NIGHT RUNS

1

Vote on the motion before anyone speaks.

2

Opening cases, one speaker a side.

3

Open floor. Raise a hand, take the mic, two minutes.

4

Closing statements from both sides.

5

Vote again. The room decides who moved it.

YOUR CASE

Four or five points, in your own words. Write the trigger, not the speech. The rest you say on stage.

3

5

WHILE THEY SPEAK

Answer what was said.

Write down their claim as they made it, not the weaker version that is easy to knock over. Then write your answer beside it. One row, one exchange.

THE ONE SENTENCE

The last thing you say is the thing the room votes on. Write it before you stand up.
